

Do my homework

do my Homework for me

The whole muscular system of the body work is performed due to the vector streams of energy produced at the cellular level. Their joint action is provided by regulatory systems. The transformation of the energy of vector flows into mechanical work is provided by the structure of the ACTO-myosin complexes ...